THEY FIRED ON THE TOWN

Odessa is at the Mercy of Mutinuous Sailors of the Czar.

Rebellion Has Risen to a Dangerous Point and the Czar Declares War.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The emperor has issued the following ukase addressed to the ruling senate: "In order to guarantee public safety and to terminate the disorders at Odessa and neighboring localities, we have found it necessary to declare a state of war in Odessa district and to invest the commander of the troops in the military district of Odessa with the rights of military authority and special rights of administration for the defense of order and public tranquillity."

St. Petersburg, June 30.—It is reported that the volunteer fleet cruiser Saratoff has been burned at Odessa.

Odessa, June 30.—The Kiaz Potemkine is firing on the town. Admiral Kruger's squadron is not in sight.
The populace is in a vengeful mood and unless the situation is handled with the utmost care anything may yet happen.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The Russian government, although it has been almost paralyzed by the terrible events at Odessa and the news that the sailors at Libau also have mutinied, is making desperate and even frantic efforts to meet the situation and to stamp out the flames of revolution before they spread to the army, which is now the last bulwark of the autocracy.

With Poland red with the spirit of revolt, the Caucasus already almost in a state of civil war; agrarian disorders spreading rapidly, the whole country profoundly stirred and the intelligent classes solidly against the government, all conditions seem ripe for the long-predicted revolution.

The first act of the government after dispatching Admiral Kruger's squadron from Sebastopol, was to summon the Kiaz Potemkine, whose mutineers have now been joined by the crews of the two torpedo boats which accompanied it to Odessa, to surrender under the threat of firing on and sinking her. This was followed by the declaration of martial law at Odessa and Libau and the clothing of the military commanders with plenipotentiary powers.

The newly formed council for imperial defense met last night under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas, and was in session long after midnight. Beyond the fact that the temper of the army was considered at length, nothing is known as to what occurred in the council or regarding the decisions at which it arrived.

Great fear is expressed that many regiments are honeycombed with sedition and there is grave doubt of their loyalty should they be called on to fire on the revolutionists. Indeed, the most startling stories involving the unreliability of the troops are being repeated in St. Petersburg, but the truth of many of them is more than questionable.

What effect the news of the happenings at Odessa will have upon the troops and the people in general is problematical and is puzzling the press. The precautions taken by the authorities to keep the news from the public have been in vain, the revolutionaries and the liberals are spreading it by word of mouth and within twenty-four hours it will be known in the uttermost confines of European Russia. When the news reaches the armies in Manchuria it is bound to create a deep impression. The authorities, however, realizing that it was certain to leak out and that there would be exaggerated versions of it and perhaps to prepare the way for a public announcement, are now sending some dispatches to the newspapers.

Dispatches received here from Odessa do not make the situation very clear. Millions of dollars' worth of property, including ships, has been burned or otherwise destroyed. The city is terror-stricken and many, probably hundreds, have been killed or wounded in the street fighting. The fact that the troops and police made no attempt to interfere with the burial of the martyred sailor is considered to be evidence that they either felt themselves powerless or feared to make the attempt owing to the attitude of the populace.

Under cover of darkness produced by the dense pall of smoke hanging over the city, it is reported, the mob has begun to sack and plunder. Foreign property has suffered heavily.
Late dispatches from Libau say that property losses there are considerable and that all the workmen have gone out in sympathy with the action of the bluejackets. Private reports are said to have been received according to which artillery was employed against the mutineers, but this has not been confirmed, nor is there at hand any statement giving the number of killed or wounded. The mutiny at Libau, following on the heels of the events at Odessa, gave rise to the impression that it might be the result of a general plot of the sailors, but no connection between these happenings has as yet been shown.

May Reopen Old Question.

London, June 30.—Should the report that the Kiaz Potemkine has been burned at Odessa be confirmed the incident probably will precipitate a critical international situation and the foreign consuls there will also certainly demand the protection of warships if they have not already done so; and as the treaty of Paris bars any but Russian or Turkish men-of-war from entering the Black sea, the "Dardanelles question" might as a result be revived in a novel and unexpected shape.

All Eyes on Oyster Bay.

Washington, June 30.—Diplomats in Washington are looking to Oyster Bay for the official announcement within the next few days of the plenipotentiaries who will represent Russia and Japan at the Washington conference.

FIRST CAR ENTERS THE TERMINAL

I. & C. Officials in Private Car Run to Junction and Thence Into Indianapolis.

A private car on the I. & C. No.
306, carried about eight officials of the road to the junction with the Shelby-ville line yesterday afternoon, and about 6:30 p. m. after the men had stopped work on Prospect street for the day, the car made the first trip to the Terminal Station. It went under the viaducts without the least trouble and turned the corners in the city nicely. Carl Hunt, of this city, was the motorman, and the trip was made in one hour and fifty minutes. Since the cars on this line are the largest that enter Indianapolis with the exception of those on the Northwestern line, the one which made the trip yesterday attracted a great deal of attention in the city.

After Saturday afternoon the regular cars will make the full trip into Indianapolis, thus avoiding the change at the junction. This will make possible a reduction of the time schedule, and the trip then will be made in one hour and fifty minutes.

WILL TURN OVER POST ON OCT. 1

Consul-General Gowdy Will Leave For Home at That Time.

Louis Ludlow, the Washington correspondent for the Indianapolis Star, says: "Oct. 1st has been chosen upon as the exact date when John K.
Gowdy, Consul General at Paris, shall turn over that office to Frank Mason, the Ohio man, who is to succeed him.
The date was arranged with the President by Representative Watson and other friends of Mr. Gowdy. The new fiscal quarter will begin on Oct. 1.
It is understood that Mr. Gowdy and family will return at once to Indiana, where they have not been since they left this country to go to Paris eight years ago. On the outgoing voyage Mr. Gowdy had a severe spell of sea-sickness, and he vowed then that he would not venture another trip across the ocean until he returned to America to stay."

IS NOT YET WITHDRAWN

Suit For Receiver For Buena Vista Oil Co. Will be Pushed.

The Company's Affairs are Still Unsettled — Men Declare Company is Insolvent.

The Greensburg News says: That all is not at peace in the affair of the Buena Vista Oil Co. is evidenced by the statement published below. This statement was mailed to us by Mr.
Parker with a request that we give it publication. The statement follows as below:

To the stockholders:
By request of the executive committee I am asked to make the following statement:

The O'Connell crowd has represented to the public that all difficulties pertaining to the company are satisfactorily adjusted while such is not the case. Mr. Day states in his circular that the company is in debt. That is just what we contended in our petition that the thing is insolvent.

Again he states in the circular that 12,400 shares remain that belong to the company and as there has been 6000 or less shares sold previous to the total of about 18,400 shares are accounted for. Now the company is incorporated for 30,000 shares and the difference between their amounts is 11,600, so this according to their own statements must represent the number of shares held by the promoters. So you see they are still able to look after their own interests. I am instructed to say that the suit filed in the Fayette county circuit court is not withdrawn nor will it while such unjust conditions exist.
J. A. PARKER,
Sec'y Stockholders Association.

COMPLIMENTS JOHN F. MOSES

The Connersville Examiner Says He Has Made Many Friends in Connersville.

The Connersville Examiner in its account of the sale of the Connersville Courier by Editor John F. Moses of this city, pays some high compliments to Mr. Moses. The Examiner says: John F. Moses has sold the weekly Courier to Gilbert H. Hamilton, of Thorntown, Indiana. The new proprietor will take possession of the paper Saturday and Mr. Moses will return to Rushville.

Although he has been a resident of Connersville but a few months, Mr.
Moses has made many warm friends here who will learn of his leaving with some surprise and much regret.
He is a clever gentleman and a first class newspaper man, and he served his patrons well. Mr. Moses was one of the publishers of the Rushville Republican up to a few years ago, when his health became undermined and he was forced on this account to retire from business.

After a rest of two or three years he felt that he had sufficiently recovered to be able to engage in business again, and he bought the Courier.
After a few weeks in the harness his old trouble again became apparent and once more forced him out of business.

A correspondent of the Brookville American, signing himself "Methodist," inveighs against the practice of singing the old church hymns to new tunes. He says the old hymns are sacred and an inspiration and a landmark in the lives of most Christians. "We are admonished to do all things to the glory of God," he says, "and surely there does not seem to be any glory to him in such unnatural singing and very little if any to any one else."

BASE BALL

The Connersville Examiner of yesterday contains the following account of the ball game as it was witnessed by the Connersville crowd: There were about thirty-five of the base ball enthusiasts from this city that went to Rushville yesterday afternoon to witness the game with the team there and the Greensburg Reds. All reported a pleasant visit and the game was quite interesting and much enjoyed. Greensburg, it is said, put up a good article of ball with the crack pitcher, Clarence Donnell in the box and should have won a shut out victory, but as it was they came out with the best of the argument by a score of 5 to 2. Several costly errors by Greensburg players allowed Rushville two runs. Connaughton was on the firing line for Rushville and pitched a nice game. Although the five scores were made off of him in one inning, errors also from the men supporting him being partially responsible.

PURCHASING THE RIGHT OF WAY

Work Begins on Shelbyville-Greensburg Line—Connersville Extension Soon.

Charles L. Henry, the interurban line promoter was in Greensburg Thursday and today and definite action was taken toward starting the proposed line from that city to Shelbyville.

Workmen are going over the right of way to see what difficulties they will meet in purchasing the tract of land through which the line will pass. Mr.
Henry is very desirous of having this line in operation at once and is losing no time in settling things in action.

If nothing prevents the line will probably be in operation by the last of the present year. A large force of men will be put to work as soon as the right of way is secured.

The grading will not be very heavy.
The heaviest grade will be over Flat-rock river at St. Paul but a solid foundation of rock can easily be had on which to rest the piers of the bridge and this need not present any difficulty.

Mr. Henry expects to begin work on the Greensburg and Connersville extensions simultaneously. It is thought that a force of men will be put to work within the next two weeks. The work at Prospect street, Indianapolis, it is expected, will be entirely finished next week.

It is said that Mr. Henry expects in the course of time to connect the Rushville and Greensburg lines with a line from Rushville to Greensburg paralleling the Big Four. Rushville people would hail an announcement to this effect with delight. From the present indications it appears that the I. & C. company is planning a net work of trolley roads in this part of the State.

July Fourth promises to be a quiet one in Rushville.

Thomas Downey's new automobile has arrived.

T. M. Randall the man who "boomed" New Castle and made it double its population in the last five years left there last week for new fields with less money than he when he came there and five years of hard work gone. This is the fate that generally befalls promoters. Randall has made at least twenty-five men rich at New Castle, but he is now overlooked in their "greed for gain."

The New Castle Tribune which for a number of years has published at New Castle will move to Spiceland within a few days. The Tribune is owned and edited by Fleming Ratcliff, who has been unable to secure suitable quarters there after the building which he now occupies has been sold. The plant will be moved to Spiceland this week, and the paper will then be known as the Henry County Tribune.
It has been forty years since Spiceland had a newspaper and the venture has an assured future.

THE HOODOO IS BROKEN

The Rushville Team Finally Lands a Game From Greensburg.

Team, With a Shifted Line-up, Plays Rings Around the Redlanders.

It is a very different story that we have to tell this time, thanks to Captain Hans Wagner and his team-mates.

Listen, we will whisper it into your ear.—Rushville has won a game from Greensburg. Yes, it is the truth, and the beauty of it is that the local team with its line-up all shifted about, simply played rings around the Greensburgers. The game was played at Greensburg Thursday afternoon and when the smoke and dust of the battle cleared away, one look at the score board sufficed to send a thrill through the few Rushvillians who witnessed the contest and to cause big lumps of something to rise in the throats of the 300 Greensburg fans and tears to flow from their eyes.

Little Johnny McCord begged permission to pitch the game for Rushville. Consent was given and Johnny trotted out upon the field with a heart full of glee. For three innings he made monkeys out of his former teammates, then his thumb began to pain him and he lost his speed. Wagner went to the rubber in the fourth and for four more innings held the Red birds to no hits and no runs. Thanks to Wagner's work there was nothing doing on the Greensburg side until the eighth inning. Then, however, they scored two runs and in the ninth finally pulled down another.

House, the Greensburg boy, was in the box for Greensburg and pitched a fine article of ball, holding Rushville to seven hits. The locals, however, were able to bunch a few and these, coupled with costly errors by Greensburg, won the game. The locals scored twice in the first, once in the fifth and thrice in the ninth.

The local team lined up during the game as follows: McCord p, McClellan c, Wagner 1b, and p, Carter 2b, Bush ss, Herold 3b, Kiser lf, Duncan cf and rf, Morgan rf and 1b, Taylor cf.

The score was as follows:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 — R H E Rushville 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 3 — 6 7 2
Greensburg 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 — 3 4 3
Batteries, McCord, Wagner and Mc-Clellan, House and Hunché; umpire, Fey; time 1:40; attendance, 300.

Struck out, by McCord 2, by Wagner 3, by House 5; bases on balls by Mc-Cord 2, by Wagner 2, by House 3; passed ball, Hunché 1, McClellan 1; three base hits, Waybright, Carter, Bush; two base hits, Bush 1, Morgan, Reggy and Young.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Reds hit the ball hard all through the game, but could not connect safely when hits meant runs.
Waybright, the first man up in the seventh inning, hit for three bases, but died, Ettig, Hunché and Mc-Clellan striking out. Again in the ninth with two runs scored and the bases full, the side was retired. This speaks volumes for Wagner's pitching.

The local out field was kept busy all through the game, but each chance however difficult, was accepted. Carter came down a little too hard while sliding into second base, and drew blood from a little cut over his eye.

"Windy" Morgan did his share on the lines.

Wagner captained the team. Early in the game he called himself down for making an error at first base.
"Hans" says that if Wgner does not do better Sunday he will be compelled to release himself.

The team may finish the season with Windy at first base, McClellan behind the bat and Carter at second.
Carter is a much better second baseman than he ever was a short stop.

The Greensburg Graphic this morning moans over the loss of the game and gets a kick at Manager Spinney.

SOCIETY NEWS

Miss Bertha Megee gave an informal party Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Hornsberger, her guest from Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy, of Posey township, entertained last night in honor of Miss Josephine and George Kirehner, of Terre Haute.

Miss Minnie Burt entertained the Thursday Afternoon Card club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Charles A.
Schroth was awarded the favor for high playing.

The girls who will attend the Kap-pi Whi and Epicurean picnic on the Fourth will meet Monday evening at the home of Miss Elsie Clark to make arrangements for the dinner and luncheon.

Mrs. H. A. Kramer was the hostess of a neighborhood party given this afternoon at her home on North Harrison street. Light refreshments were served and sweet peas were given as favors. The guests from a distance were Mrs. Orwin, of Indianapolis, and Miss Frances Moffett, of Athens, Tenn.

Miss Dora A. Lord, of near Mays, and Mr. Charles B. Bales, of Washington township, were married Wednesday evening at the bride's home by the Rev. J. O. Hall, of Carthage.
The bride, a daughter of Trustee W.
A. Lord, is a very popular young lady in the vicinity of her home, and the groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bales, of Raleigh, is a successful teacher of Washington township. Mr. and Mrs. Bales will make their home in Raleigh.

Miss Lydia Mauzy entertained fourteen of her friends last night at a four-course dinner. Before the dinner was served the company enjoyed an informal dance, the music was furnished by Willard Kincaid. The invited guests were: Misses Bernice Anderson, Bertha Megee, Jessie Hornsberger, Hazel Carr, Ruth Tevis, Leona Vance, Luella Amos, Nelle Bigham, Aileen Wilson, Marie Clark, Orna Innis, Ethel Blackledge, Mary Amos and Helen Campbell.

"Mrs. Tubb's Telegram," the little comedy, given yesterday afternoon and last night in E. B. Poundstone's barn, by the girls of North Harrison street, was thoroughly successful.
Miss Louise Mauzy made a splendid Mrs. Tubb, and Misses Erema Wilk Grace Megee and Anna Poundstone took the parts of Mrs. Donnell, Mrs.
Raven and Mrs. Simpkins in a very pleasing manner. Mrs. Tubb's children, Rowena and Amelia, were well represented by Misses Edith Wilk and Aileen Budd, and Miss Ruth Innis made a typical telegraph boy. The girls realized $20 on the two performances and the money will be sent to the Indianapolis News Fresh Air Fund. The performance in the afternoon was such a success that the audience requested the performance to be repeated at night. The children deserve great commendation for undertaking the charitable enterprise and we congratulate them on their success. Geo. C. Wyatt & Co. kindly furnished the chairs for the occasion.

The home of Lemuel Harold at Knightstown, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday night, when his daughter, Miss Harriet R.
Harold, and Charles Butler, of Char-thage, were united in marriage by the Rev. Morton C. Pearson, pastor of the First Friends' church, Indianapolis.
The bride wore a beautiful white gown of Paris muslin, the bodice an elaborate lace pattern and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. The other members of the bridal party were Miss Lura Harold, of Indianapolis, as maid of honor; Arthur Harold, a brother of the bride, best man, and two little ribbon bearers, Ralph and Russel Ratliff, twin nephews of the bride. The maid of honor wore a gown of blue silk mull and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.
The march which was from Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. N. Aldus Harold. The party stood under an enormous dome of field daisies and the rooms were a daisy bower. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives and a few friends. These included guests from Indianapolis, Pendleton, Anderson, Charlottesville and Richmond. They will be at home at Carthage to their friends after September 1st.

A pretty day is all that will be required now to make a big success of the picnic of fraternal orders at Blue River Park near Morristown next Sunday. In reference to the picnic the Morristown Sun says:
"In no sense should the union picnic of the fraternal orders of Morristown, to be held at Blue River Park July 3d, be considered as affording an opportunity for a desecration of the Sab-
occasion thus lightly may as well stay away. But rather it is to be a day when brother may meet brother in fraternal greeting and spend the time under the charm of pure air and refreshing woods that may prove both
impart fellow feeling and kindness to your neighbor. If you come with this purpose in mind you will have caught
be a day well spent."

A Pittsburg woman who set about to prevent the Bell telephone company from erecting poles on her premises is a female of resources. As fast as the workmen dug the holes she plugged them up with her own offspring.
Nora plugged the first hole, Bridget the next one, Pat the third, Mike the fourth and Jimmy the fifth. The dispatch does not say whether the lady ran short of plugs, nor did it give the

WARNING TO MERCHANTS

New Code Forbids Any Goods to be Distributed by Lot or Chance.

Selling of Prize Packages Also Under the Ban—Kansas Merchant's Scheme.

"Purchasers' Clubs" as conducted in almost every town in Indiana are illegal. Let us illustrate our meaning here: Suppose a tailor issues tickets in a series of forty, selling them at one dollar each, there being one ticket in the series of forty entitling the holder to a forty dollar suit of clothes, the tickets providing that when a holder shall have purchased forty tickets without having received a lucky number he shall be entitled to a suit from the forty dollar stock. Here the element of chance is involved.
The gambling instinct is appealed to.
Such a proposal says to every one: Buy a ticket and get a chance to secure a forty dollar suit of clothes for a dollar." This is a lottery. It is illegal and renders the tailor liable to a fine of from ten to one hundred dollars.

The selling of prize packages is also under the ban of the law. It makes no difference that every purchaser gets his money's worth; the trouble arises when a purchaser may by chance get more than his money's worth.

A rather novel scheme which led a Kansas merchant into the meshes of the law consisted in his exhibiting in his window a box containing a considerable sum of money to be given to that consumer who received a key that would open the box, some sort of key being given with each purchase of 50 cents or more. Of course this was a lottery, pure and simple.

Instances of illegal advertising could be enumerated without number, but the foregoing will suffice to show that great numbers of merchants in Indiana unconsciously are violating the laws of the State relating to lotteries and gift enterprises. It would be well to secure the opinion of counsel before adopting any scheme of this sort.

LODGE PICNIC AT MORRISTOWN

Rev. V. W. Tevis of This City Will Speak—Big Time Anticipated

Morristown Sun says:

RUSHVILLE, IND., JUNE 30, 1905.

Secretary Taft seems still to be holding down almost everything he sits on.

It is to be hoped that the dove of peace will find a comfortable place under the wings of the American eagle.

When the fads in the public schools are abolished, as New York City is determined to do, underpaid school teachers will get more money.

A good deal of truth was put into a few words when the Chicago Chronicle said: "The Democratic party has thrown itself into the arms of the socialistic party and is at home there, but the Republican party can never enjoy such associations. The Republican party is the party of honest money, of business integrity and of individual enterprise, and it is the natural enemy of socialism." This is a subject that is commanding more attention than any other in national politics just now.

Strange things do happen, and great changes do come about even in the South. The supreme court of Mississippi has affirmed a sentence of life imprisonment upon a white man proved guilty of a criminal assault upon a black woman. A Memphis paper says that this is the first instance on record anywhere in the South, and certainly in the State of Mississippi, where a white man has gone to prison for such an offense.
 There has been much of horror in the South which has been unspeakable, and which is only hinted at in the judicial opinion of the Mississippi supreme judge. That the light is breaking in the South, the fact and the spirit of the Mississippi decision clearly prove.

John F. Moses, the former editor of the Republican, who bought the Connersville Courier this spring, announced in his paper this week that he had sold the paper and the printing plant to Gilbert H. Hamilton, of Thorntown, Ind. In his announcement, Mr. Moses says: "The change is made necessary by the condition of my health, which is such that I am advised and feel that I must have relief from the exactions of newspaper management." These are the same reasons why Mr. Moses had to relinquish the management of the Republican two years ago, but after a good rest he thought he was able to at least conduct a weekly newspaper. Mr.
 Moses has been in harness a good many years, being one of the oldest editors as well as printers in the State.
 He certainly has earned a rest. To spend the evening of his life without business vexations.

Governor's Attitude on Capital Pun- ishment Attracts Attention.

Indianapolis, June 30.—Governor Hanly's statement in refusing to interfere in the death sentence of Ber-kley Smith, colored, Indianapolis, who was hung at the state prison today for wife murder, is being widely discussed. Notwithstanding his profound conviction that the state has no moral right to take the life of any citizen save in self-defense, Governor Hanly telegraphed to Warden Reid to let the law take its course and to proceed with the execution. The governor's action was consistent with his policy of attempting to enforce the law to a letter. It has been known for some time that he is strongly opposed to capital punishment and that he wrote to the governors of many states for information that would show the effect of the death and life sentence as a deterrent for crime. It was thought that he might commute the sentences of Smith and Edward Donahue of Laporte to life imprisonment and establish a precedent against inflicting the death penalty during his administration, but he said that as long as the law provides for capital punishment he will help carry it out, he declared that at the next session of the legislature he will attempt to have the law repealed.

The bookmases opened for business as usual at the state fair grounds this afternoon, but they were not certain that they would be allowed to finish the day, as it was in the air that Governor Hanly has something up his sleeve to stop their game. He has been in conference with his close friends since his return, and it is said they have advised him to call out the militia, as Governor Matthews did in suppressing Roby several years ago.

 Governor Hanly has not decided definitely on any course, but it is understood that he is making a close investigation to see whether or not the attorney general's opinion is the correct one. Some of his lieutenants are urging him to proceed on the ground that he has the moral right to call out the troops. They have also pointed to a section of the state constitution which says the governor shall be commander-in-chief of the troops and may call them out "to execute the laws, or to suppress insurrection, or to repel invasion." His right to use the militia to execute the laws gives him the authority, his lieutenants say, to call out the troops in such situations as now exist here.

Ambrose Nowlin of Lawrenceburg, who will retire tomorrow as collector of the Indianapolis revenue district, was here today. He will be succeeded by Elam Neal of Jonesboro, whose appointment has been made and bond approved. Nowlin has been collector eight years and has made an enviable record in office. The headquarters of the district will remain at Lawrenceburg until offices are made ready in the new federal building here. It is not known whether or not Neal intends to retain the deputies who have served under Nowlin. Frank Smith of Brookville, who was a candidate last year for nomination for reporter of the supreme court, is chief clerk under Nowlin, but it is said that he will not be retained long after Neal becomes accustomed to the details of the office. C. C. Lyons of Fairmount, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the state committee, may succeed Smith.

The Republicans here are voting today to nominate their city ticket. The polls opened at 11 and will close at 8 tonight. Frank D. Stalnaker for the mayoralty nomination is a two to one favorite on the betting boards, but among the active party workers there is a feeling that Charles A. Bookwalter may succeed in upsetting the plans of the so-called leaders who are conducting the fight against him.

The Meanest Thief.

Hammond, Ind., June 30.—John Ma-linski of North Hammond was arrested for larceny. It developed at the trial that Malinski asked his wife for money with which to buy intoxicants.
 She refused to give it to him. Determined not to be circumvented, Malin-ski offered to hold their baby while his wife prepared supper. Just before she called him to supper he returned the child to her keeping, and then Mrs. Malinski discovered that the husband had robbed the infant of its shoes and had pawned them for 10 cents, with which to buy whisky. Ma-linski was fined $100 and costs by the court.

Trouble in a New Quarter.

Hodaida, Province of Yemen, Arabia, June 30.—The Arabs have risen in the province of Assyr, and Turkish communication with the port of Cum-fada is interrupted. Abba, the capital of the province of Assyr, has been invested by the rebels for some time.
 Turkish reinforcements are being dispatched to Assyr.

A Wife's Serious Complaint.

Logansport, Ind., June 30.—Asserting that her husband struck her with an ax and tried to kill her by shooting, Mrs. Martha Weaver, wife of a prominent Pan-Handle shopman, has brought suit for divorce and alimony in the sum of $500 against her husband, Mahlon Weaver.

Dunne Has His Plan.

Chicago, June 30.—Mayor Edward F. Dunne's plan for immediate municipal ownership, by which the city of Chicago may operate a streetcar system comprising 243 miles of streets, will be submitted to the city council at a special meeting next Thursday.

DEPOSITORS ANXIOUS

Bank Failure at Terre Haute Worse Than First Reported.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 30.—W. D.
 Frazier, the national bank examiner who was designated by the controller of the currency as temporary receiver of the Vigo County National bank, said that it would be some days before the bank's books were balanced and the invoice completed. After the invoice is completed the assets will be ap-raised, and not until then will there be definite information as to the amount which creditors can expect to receive. Though the first official announcement placed Cashier Conzman's shortage at $16,000, it is now reported all the way from $50,000 to $100,000.
 Later reports increase the amount of worthless paper held by the bank. Of the $800,000 in loans and discounts there may be as much as $300,000 on which nothing can be realized, or at least $100,000 of it may take a long time to convert into cash. On the other hand it is said that the $150,000 capital stock and the $50,000 surplus will cover the losses by the cashier's shortage and the bad paper, so that eventually the depositors will get dollar for dollar.

Defense Alleges Persecution.

Portland, Ore., June 30.—Judge A.
 S. Bennett opened the argument for the defense in the trial of United States Senator John H. Mitchell. He took up the evidence and alleged it was one of persecution.

WALLACE IS OUT

Chief Engineer of Panama Canal Gets Walking Papers.

TAFT GROWS WRATHY

Secretary of War Openly Charges Engineer With Changing His Position Over Night For Lucre.

Wallace Claims to Have Been Offered So Good a Position He Could Not Resist.

Washington, June 30.—Charging him with changing his position over night "for mere lucre," and with being influenced "solely by personal advantage," Secretary Taft in his conference in New York on June 26 with John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, after administering a severe rebuke to him, requested his resignation on the ground that "public interest requires that you tender your resignation at this moment and turn over the records of your office to the chairman of the commission."

This fact is disclosed in an official statement issued from the office of the secretary of war last night which reviews the relations of Mr. Wallace with the war department and the commission since the latter body's reorganization last spring, quoting the several expressions of the chief engineer of his satisfaction with the entire arrangement, and then gives practically a verbatim account of the conference between Secretary Taft and Mr. Wallace in New York, which concluded with the submission to Secretary Taft of Mr. Wallace's resignation. The statement issued concludes with the president's letter to Mr. Wallace, dated Cambridge, Mass., June 28, which reads:

"Your resignation as member and chief engineer of the Isthmian canal commission, tendered in accordance with the request of Secretary Taft, which request under the circumstances has my entire approval, is hereby accepted, to take effect immediately. Very truly yours,
 "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The statement shows that Mr. Wallace made no complaint against any of his associates, and gives as his reason for resignation the offer of a position as president of a large holding company controlling several other corporations, with certain stock benefits and other advantages to himself, which, with the salary, made it equivalent to $60,000 a year.

TREASURY STATEMENT

Deficit of Nearly $25,000,000 in Uncle Sam's Accounts.

Washington, June 30.—The following statement of the operations of the treasury for the fiscal year ending June 30 was made public today:

The government fiscal year ends today. The treasury deficit for the year will be approximately $24,500,000.
 This amount is subject to a slight but not material change. The last report of the secretary of the treasury estimated a deficit for this fiscal year of $18,000,000. The actual deficit exceeds this by six and one-half millions.

The receipts for the fiscal year have been about $543,000,000, two millions more than the receipts estimated by the secretary of the treasury in his last report. The expenditures have been $567,500,000, or about eight and one-half millions more than was estimated. The month of June just closing shows a handsome surplus of nearly $13,000,000, and reduced the deficit from $37,000,000 to $24,500,000.

A comparison of the receipts of this fiscal year with those of the preceding year shows remarkably small changes.
 Customs receipts for the fiscal year 1904 were approximately $262,000,000; for this year approximately $261,500,- 000. Internal revenue receipts for 1904 were $232,400,000; for 1905, $233,- 500,000. Miscellaneous receipts in 1904 were $46,700,000; in 1905, $48,- 000,000.

A comparison of the expenditures of the two years shows wider variations.
 Civil and miscellaneous expenditures in 1904, excluding payment for the right of way for the Panama canal and the loan to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company were $132,- 400,000; this year they were $147,200,- 000, an increase of $15,000,000, of which more than half is an increase in the postal deficiency. War department expenditures in 1904 were $115,- 300,000; this year $122,400,000, an increase of $7,000,000. Navy department expenditures in 1904 were $102,500,- 000; this year $117,300,000, an increase of $14,500,000. Indians in 1904, $10,- 400,000; in 1905, $14,600,000, an increase of $4,200,000. Pension payments in 1904, $142,600,000, in 1905, $141,700,000, a decrease of $1,000,000.
 Interest payments were the same for the two years, $24,500,000.

Shocking Ohio Tragedy.

Zanesville, O., June 30.—Mrs. Catherine Hughes, thirty-three years old, wife of Simon Hughes, coal miner, of Cooperdale, Coshocton county, was found murdered near a spring on the family homestead. A club had been used to beat her face beyond recognition. Finger prints were also detected on the skin. No clue to the murderer has been obtained.

FLOATING POOLROOM

Chicago Gamblers Solve the Problem of Evading the Law.

Chicago, June 30.—The steamer City of Traverse, America's first wireless floating poolroom, made her initial trip yesterday, and by the admission of the authorities it means the commencement of a reign of bliss for the local gambling fraternity. The owners of the boat are believed to have perpetrated the smartest gambling trick yet seen in Chicago, and Chief of Police O'Neill said that under a decision written by the legal advisers of the city, he is powerless to interfere.
 The jurisdiction of Illinois does not extend into Michigan or Indiana waters, and there is no federal statute prohibiting gambling on federal waters, so it is believed that managers of poolrooms have outwitted the authorities.

When the boat left Chicago she carried about 300 passengers, one-third of her legal limit. She was taken to a point twenty-two miles southeast of Chicago. It had been ascertained that at this point, in the middle of the lake, just half way between Michigan and Illinois and ten miles north of Indiana, the waters of the three states are closest together. When the boat reached this point she was slowed down to two miles an hour and commenced to describe vast circles for the balance of the afternoon. Just at the time that the boat commenced to make its circles the wireless apparatus began to pick up the race reports.
 From that time until 5:10 the results and betting odds from the big tracks came without interruption, both from Chicago and Michigan City. Bets were made and paid as though at a racetrack, and the crowd made up in betting enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers.

WOMAN MUST HANG

Mrs. Edwards Sees Her Last Hope Go Glimmering.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 30.—The state board of pardons has finally disposed of the case of Mrs. Kate Edwards, the Berks county woman under sentence of death for the murder of her husband, by refusing to grant her a commutation. There is no appeal from the decision of the board, which has twice before refused to commute the woman's sentence, and Governor Pennypacker will fix the date of her execution later.

Won by an Oar.

New London, Conn., June 30.—The Yale varsity crew wrested victory from Harvard in the annual four-mile race on the Thames by the length of an oar. After rowing for four miles with the shells lapping and the graceful prows zig-zagging between strokes, the Yale boat crossed the finish line three-quarters of a length ahead of the crimson. Yale won by two and one-half seconds, time 22:33 1/4; Harvard's was 22:36.

Big Blaze in Distillery.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 30.—Fire which broke out in the elevator of the Merchants distillery yesterday afternoon caused a loss of $100,000. The elevator was destroyed and the spirits house damaged. Firemen prevented a total loss of the plant. The loss is covered by insurance.

Punxsutawney, Pa., June 30.—One man was killed and three others injured in a head-on freight wreck two miles below Echo.

Governor Hanly Permitted Berkley Smith to Go to Gallows.

PERSONAL OPPOSITION

While the Governor Does Not Favor Capital Punishment, He Found Here No Ground for Clemency.

Will Soon Have Another Case of a Similar Character to Pass Upon.

Michigan City, Ind., June 30.—Ber-kley Smith, the negro who shot down his wife in Indianapolis, paid the penalty for his crime on the gallows at the state prison here this morning.
 Governor Hanly sent a telegram to Warden Reid Thursday, ordering the hanging to go on, saying that he had refused to interfere.

This decision of the governor came after deliberate consideration on the part of the executive, and in the face of a strong personal opposition to capital punishment. Almost a month ago he sent letters out to the governors of all the states, asking for data and information showing what, if any, was the relation between capital punishment and a small murder death rate.
 He gathered information from all possible sources, and has been seriously considering the question, not only of commuting the sentences of Smith, but also of making this a fixed policy of the administration. This has been decided against, and each case will be decided upon its individual merits.

The next case that the governor will have to pass upon is that of Edward Donahue, sentenced to death July 21 for the murder of Armiter Northrup in Lake county. The governor says that he will ask the next legislature to pass a law doing away with capital punishment.

SHORTAGE IN ACCOUNTS

Discrepancy of Thousands Found in Grant County Affairs.

Marion, Ind., June 30.—Expert accountants who have been going over the books of present and past county officials and who recently made a report showing several of the ex-officials to be several thousand dollars short on their books, have submitted another report.

The accountants state that present County Clerk Wall is short $4,621.81; present Sheriff Mills, $2,755.54; present Auditor Goldthwaite, $753; ex-Treasurer Harvey, $118, and ex-Treasurer Steele $2,246.04.

This makes a total of $23,007.08 which is due Grant county from the eight officials whose books have been examined. It is the general belief that the money was taken by the officials believing that it was due them, and not from any desire to take what did not belong to them.

The alleged shortage is for fees not on cash book, allowances for services not legal, and charges of 19 per cent by treasurers for collecting delinquent taxes, for which they should have received 6 per cent.

Governor's Influence Good.

Anderson, Ind., June 30.—The Anderson Fair association has decided to have no bookmaking nor beer stands on its grounds during the running races of July 4, and also none at the annual fair later in the summer.
 Thomas B. Orr, president of the association, said that the association will not enter into a conflict with Governor Hanly and the laws of Indiana. Mr.
 Orr is not disposed to criticize the governor for his efforts to enforce the law. He believes the governor is doing his duty, and that the laws rather than the governor should be attacked if they are unpopular.

Boy Killed by Train.

Noblesville, Ind., June 30.—Harry, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs.
 W. H. Davis of this city, was killed by a railway train at Colorado Springs.
 He was accompanying his parents on a trip through the West when the accident occurred. The boy was crossing the track when the engine struck him, the wheels almost severing his head from his body. Burial will be had in this city.

CLEANED OUT JAIL

Georgia Mob Calmly Murders Seven Men at Watkinsville.

Watkinsville, Ga., June 30.—Eight prisoners were taken from the jail here and seven were shot to death by a mob of masked white men, within 200 yards of the center of the town. Eight men were carried to the scene of the lynching, but one miraculously escaped death by falling to the ground when the volley was fired and feigning that he had been killed. The names of the men who were killed are: Lewis Robertson, Rich Robinson, Sand Price, Claude Elder, Bob Harris, Jim Yerly, all negroes, and Lon Aycock, white. Joe Patterson, a negro, feigned death and the mob left him, thinking he, too, had been killed with bullets.

Four of the prisoners were charged with being implicated in the murder of a man named Holbrook and wife several weeks ago, and one was held for assault. The others were in jail on misdemeanor charges.

The mob left quietly after doing its work, and none of its members came toward Athens. It is believed the men came from neighboring counties. The purpose of the mob was accomplished so quietly that the sheriff, who lives a mile from the jail, knew nothing of the occurrence until morning, and the residents of Watkinsville were taken completely by surprise. The impelling cause of the lynching without doubt was the attempted rape by Sandy Price, which excited the people all over this section.

Mrs. Hillis took Mrs. Mathews out for a walk at 7 o'clock and when they returned and went into the house, the guests were awaiting her. She was completely surprised. The evening was spent in games and socially, and with some excellent music. Refreshments were served. The evening was a most enjoyable one to all present.

Shelbyville Republican, Thursday: The interurban company came very very near having one of its passenger cars destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The car which is due here at 4 o'clock, shortly after leaving London for this city, was discovered on fire, the front end in which the motorman stands being ablaze. The car was stopped and the motorman jumped from his place. All the people began to extinguish the blaze. They took the water from the water tank and tried to extinguish the flames. Then they tried to smother it with gravel. Both proved unsuccessful. Then all the male passengers took hold of the car and pushed it back up the track to where there was a small pond. There enough water was secured to extinguish the fire.
